A' Point in Advertising.

"To advertise successfully," says the New York Star, "one must advertise right straight along," said a prominent New York dry goods merchant. "We

New York dry goods merchant. "We once hit upon a novel expedient, of ascertaining over what area our advertisements were read. We published a couple of half-column 'ads,' in which we parposely misstated half a dozen historical facts."

"Bid you get any reply?"

"I should say we did. In less than a week we received between 300 and 400 letters from all parts & the country, from people who wanted to know why on earth we kept such a a consummate fool who knew so little about American history. The letters came pouring in for three or four weeks. It was one of the best paying 'ads' that we ever printed. Our letters came from schoolboys, girls, professors, clergymen, school teachers, and in two instances from eminent men who have a worldwide reputation. I was more impressed with the value of advertising from these two advertisements than I should have been by whole volumes of theories."

The Salvation Army

Loxpen, August 14.—Booth, of the Salvation Army, writes to the papers that he has a project for the formation of an office of help and inquiry with headoffice of help and inquiry with headquarters in London, and agencies in the provinces and in the principal cities throughout the world. Men speaking different languages and familiar with the haunts of vice and the traffic in girls will be employed, ready to assist all girls who wish to reform, and who will aid the parents and guardians of missing children. In connection with the office, houses of refuge will be established in London ad elsewhere capable of accomodating 1000 persons esch, where girls will be provided for and taught means of carming a livelihood and be restored to respectability. In these homes the girls will be under no restraint. The establishment of such hoises of refuge will especially meet the case of thousands of girls who have been thrown destitute on the world-through the raising of the age of consent. Receiving houses will be established in Canada and the United States. Mr. Morley has pronised £2,000, and three other gentlemen have subscribed £1,000 each toward a fund. quarters in London, and agencies in the GALVESTON, Angust 14.—Special from Laredo to the New says: At 5 o'clock this afternoon, Cristino Aldava and Caledomo Chevarria, two Mexican murderers, were hanged in the jail yard here in presence of several thousand spectators, many of whom were Mexicans from across the river. Aldava read a confession, from the scaffold. Chevarria stood smoking a cigar while Aldava was speaking, then harangued the crowd for forty minutes, endeavoring to establish his innocence. Both men adjusted the nooses about their necks and were stolidly indifferent until the end.

"All the gustronomic wonders that the combined skill and ingenuity of best were decraises could command were set, before the tanqueters." You know the rest. They over-site themselves. This brought on indigestion. Indigestion is followed by chronic dyspepsia. Habitual attendants on big dinners have a sad experience in this line. But it is good to know what Brown's Iron Bitters can do for the confirmed dyspeptic. Mr. W. C. Welch, Pella, Iowa, was troubled in this way, but gratefully says: "I found relief by using Brown's Iron Bitters." Newspaper Report of the Big Duner. The gal Blanks

A Presidential Message

Washington, August 14.-It is under oplation to appoint an army to perform the duties of Indian ontemplation to other to perform the duties of indian agent upon the San Carlos reservation. Some time ago Secretary Lamar expressed a connection that an army officer should be designated to represent both the Interior and War Departments, and the Secretary of War recommended to the President that Captain A. E. Pierce be resigned to the position. The President has not yet signified his purposes in regard to the matter.
